BACKGROUND

Investigation requested 12/28/60 by Lawrence F. O'Brien, Special Assistant to the President, the White House, Washington, D. C., and opened same day. Position for which being considered not indicated. Investigation completed with the exception of a check of the United States Secret Service and the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). 5

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

b7C

Mr. Hill is a fifty-three-year-old Negro attorney presently practicing in Richmond, Virginia. He is an attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at Richmond, Virginia. Investigation was favorable except as follows:

Several persons interviewed recollected that Hill, while practicing law in Roanoke, Virginia, in the 1930's, was involved in some complaint regarding money in an attorney-client relationship. No one could recall the details of the complaint. Governor J. Lindsay Almond (D) of Virginia, advised he was Assistant Commonwealth Attorney and later a Judge at Roanoke, Virginia, and knows of nothing derogatory concerning Hill. Roanoke PD has no record for Hill.

[Sources have advised that Hill has been discussed at numerous meetings of the Virginia CP and that Virginia CP leaders sought to aid in Hill's campaign for City Councilman and that he accepted their help as individuals but not as members of the CP. Source states Hill never a CP or CP front member. Source advised Hill associated with National Lawyers' Guild in 1939. Another source states Hill signed Stockholm Peace Petition (cited by HCUA) in July, 1950. Hill was one of 18 lawyers who signed petition in behalf of Southern Conference Educational Fund (cited by HCUA). w

Appointee born 5/1/07 Richmond, Virginia. Left State at early age and went to Washington, D. C., where he received his education. Began practice of law Roanoke, Virginia, for about three years and then returned to Washington. Two lawyers, Roanoke, have vague recollection HILL left there in disrepute because of some lawyer - client relationship. This not substantiated by other lawyers or sources. Neighbors and acquaintances recommend as to character, loyalty and associates. Three associates recommend but believe he should not be appointed to a position in Virginia. AT RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

BIRTH

On December 29, 1960, [redacted] Clerk, Virginia State Bureau of Vital Statistics, Richmond, Virginia, located the following information concerning the appointee:

b7c

She stated that on October 1, 1942, a court order was entered in Hustings Court in the City of Richmond changing the name of CHARLES B. WHITE, sometimes known as OLIVER LEWIS WHITE, to OLIVER WHITE HILL. At that time, the birth of this individual was recorded and it reflected that the appointee was born on May 1, 1907, in Richmond, Virginia, to WILLIAM WHITE, JR., and OLIVIA WHITE at 1308 North First Street, Richmond.

[redacted] advised that her records reflect that on March 8, 1907, WILLIAM WHITE, JR., age twenty-one, occupation, printer, and OLIVIA LEWIS, age twenty, were married at Richmond, Virginia, and her mother was listed as NANNIE LEWIS and his parents were listed as WILLIAM and KATE WHITE. There was no minister's return on this marriage certificate and there was a notation to "see license". She advised this license would be at Hustings Court in Richmond. She also stated that she could not determine from the certificate whether the license was issued and used or whether it was possibly issued and not used. Both were listed as "colored".

b7c

[redacted] advised that her records also reflected that on April 21, 1911, JOSEPH C. HILL, single, born Washington, D.C., parents JOSEPH C. and HARRIET HILL, employed as bellman, and OLIVIA LEWIS, divorced, born Richmond, Virginia, mother CAROLYN LEWIS, were married at Hot Springs, Bath County, Virginia. Both were listed as "colored", and no information appeared in the record as to where OLIVIA LEWIS obtained her divorce.

[redacted] advised that divorce records were not maintained at the Bureau of Vital Statistics until 1918.

b7c

[redacted] Clerk, Hustings Court Clerk's Office, Richmond, Virginia, on December 29, 1960, advised that an order was entered on October 1, 1942, changing the name of CHARLES B.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WHITE, son of WILLIAM WHITE, JR., and OLIVIA WHITE, whose maiden name was OLIVIA LEWIS, and commonly known as OLIVER LEWIS WHITE, to OLIVER WHITE HILL. WHITE, at the time he entered the petition, stated that during his early childhood, his mother divorced his father and subsequently married JOSEPH C. HILL, and at the time he entered public schools at Roanoke, Virginia, his name was given as OLIVER WHITE HILL, and he has always used that name up to the time of his petition.

[redacted] also advised that he could not locate any record of a marriage license having been issued to WILLIAM WHITE, JR., and OLIVIA LEWIS in 1907. He stated that at that time, a marriage license would only be issued to a female in the county of her legal residence prior to marriage and in this connection, if OLIVIA LEWIS was from outside the City of Richmond, she would have been able to obtain a marriage license in the city.

b7c

[redacted] also advised that he could locate no divorce record for WILLIAM WHITE, JR., and OLIVIA LEWIS.

AT HOT SPRINGS, VIRGINIA

On December 30, 1960, [redacted] Personnel Director, The Homestead, advised that her records do not go back further than 1937. Her available records failed to reflect the names of JOSEPH C. HILL or OLIVIA LEWIS HILL.

AT WARM SPRINGS, VIRGINIA

On December 30, 1960, records of the Clerk's Office, Bath County, Virginia, Court, were reviewed and it was determined from Marriage Register Number 4, page 443, that JOSEPH C. HILL, age 29, born in Washington, D. C., single and employed as a Bellman, Homestead Hotel and OLIVIA LEWIS, age 22, born Richmond, Virginia, divorced, date or place not shown, were married on April 24, 1911. The marriage was performed at the residence of Mr. MILES, Hot Springs, Virginia, by A. HILL. The marriage license was issued on April 22, 1911, and was returned April 24, 1911.

On December 30, 1960, the index of Chancery Orders, Clerk's Office, Bath County, Virginia, were reviewed but no record of a divorce proceeding between WILLIAM WHITE, JR., and OLIVIA LEWIS WHITE could be located.

On December 30, 1960, [redacted] Clerk, Bath County, Virginia, Court, advised that the names of A. HILL and Mr. MILES were not familiar to her.

On December 30, 1960, Mr. A. McMULLEN, Postmaster, Hot Springs, Virginia, advised that he has been a resident of Hot Springs for 45 years and the names A. HILL and MILES were not familiar to him. His current records failed to reflect these names.

On December 30, 1960, [redacted] Funeral Director, Hot Springs, Virginia, advised that A. HILL had been a Negro Baptist Minister at Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church, Warm Springs, Virginia, but had died a number of years ago. [redacted] did not know of anyone by the name of MILES.

AT ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

Records of the Clerk's Office, Municipal Building were checked on December 29, 1960, and they did not reflect a divorce of WILLIAM WHITE, JR., and OLIVIA LEWIS WHITE.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

EMPLOYMENT

AT ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

JOSEPH GOOD FULLER, Superintendent of Service, Ponce De Leon Hotel, informed on December 29, 1960, that he and OLIVER W. HILL were raised as boys together in Roanoke, Virginia. He related that HILL had worked during the summers waiting on tables at the Roanoke Country Club, Roanoke, Virginia, and he considered him extremely reliable, loyal, trustworthy and honest.

✓ FULLER said HILL was raised by Mr. and Mrs. BRADFORD S. PENTECOST, 401 Gilmer Avenue, NW, Roanoke, Virginia, but he did not know if he was related to PENTECOST or merely taken from his mother by them to raise. FULLER stated that HILL attended Harrison High School while in Roanoke, Virginia, and when he departed from Roanoke, Virginia, he continued his education in Washington, D. C.

FULLER related that HILL returned to Roanoke, Virginia, and practiced law for a short time in the middle of the 1930's but he did not know why he did not remain in Roanoke.

On December 29, 1960, Honorable J. VAUGHAN GARY, United States Congressman for the State of Virginia, informed that OLIVER W. HILL is an attorney in Richmond, Virginia, who has been involved in all the segregation cases in the State of Virginia for the past few years. He noted that, because of his activities in this respect, he is not in the good graces of the majority of the people in the State. He explained that HILL is an able attorney; is honest and forthright; and is, to his knowledge, a loyal American citizen. However, he commented that it would be a grave error to appoint HILL to any Federal position in Richmond or in the State of Virginia in view of the animosity against him in this area. He felt that HILL would function well in a position of trust in the North or East, but would not have the necessary cooperation in the South to do a creditable job.

Mr. GARY added that HILL was the first member of his race to be elected to public office in Richmond, Virginia, since reconstruction days and that he was supported by both major races in his election campaign because it was felt that he was a reliable, honest and able individual. He said HILL did a good job as a member of City Council and handled the duties of his office without prejudice.

Mr. GARY commented further that HILL is probably the ablest attorney of his race in this area and is a person of excellent character. He mentioned that HILL could not be elected to any public office in this area in view of the antagonism he has engendered in connection with his strong stand on racial integration. He pointed out that he felt HILL was sincere in his activity to help the members of his race but that the people in this area feel that he has not handled the situation with tact and diplomacy.

Mr. GARY ascertained that HILL's rating in the Martindale Hubbell Directory is BV. He explained that attorneys are rated by this Directory as ABC with respect to ability and V and G with respect to character. He said that HILL is given the highest rating on character and next to the highest with regard to ability.

Mr. GARY said he had never received any information indicating that HILL might be associated with any questionable organizations.

In July of 1956, RH T-1 made available certain documents found in the home of [redacted]

Among these documents were various lists of names and addresses. Some of the lists contained headings such as "Philip Morris Workers", "NAACP Leaders", "Negro Leaders", "Labor Leaders" and "Tobacco Workers". ~~X~~ U

On one of the above lists which bore no heading, the name "Mr. OLIVER HILL, 107 Overbrook Rd." appeared; and on another list headed "Negro Leaders - Jan. 1956", the name "Mr. OLIVER HILL, 107 Overbrook Rd., Lawyer-NAACP" appeared. ~~X~~ U

During the course of the current investigation, the appointee's law partner, MARTIN A. MARTIN, advised that OLIVER W. HILL has resided at 107 Overbrook Road, Richmond, Virginia, in excess of ten years.

The informant did not know the origin or significance of the above lists of names and he is not available for re-contact. ~~X~~ U

In 1956, and on several occasions since that time, RH T-2, who is aware of some of the activities and some of the members of the Communist Party (CP) in the State of Virginia, has informed that the above lists were compiled by [redacted] from educational publications, telephone directories, newspaper articles and other public source material. This informant has also stated that these lists were meant to include businessmen, educators, government workers, clergymen, labor leaders and other prominent individuals and were compiled without the consent or knowledge of the persons whose names appeared on the lists. This informant emphasized that the appearance of a person's name on the above lists of names has no significance whatsoever and should not be considered as such in any manner. ~~X~~ U

The Communist Party, U.S.A., its subdivisions, subsidiaries and affiliates, have been cited by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On July 31, 1950, RH T-2 advised that the Richmond Committee for Civil Rights (RCCR) held a picnic at Camp Hilbert, Richmond, Virginia, on July 23, 1950. This picnic was attended by almost sixty persons and among those present were OLIVER W. HILL and Mrs. OLIVER W. HILL. The informant added that the Stockholm Peace Petition was circulated at this picnic and was signed by OLIVER W. HILL. ~~S~~ U

RH T-2 reported in 1949 that a RCCR meeting was held in Richmond, Virginia, on April 22, 1949. He said that a suggestion was made at this meeting that the RCCR affiliate itself with other organizations on an issue of interest to the RCCR. One such organization mentioned at the meeting was the Communist Party. According to the informant, some members warned against "being used" by other organizations and it was decided that the RCCR would cooperate with other "progressive groups" in time of need on the matter of civil rights. He said that the RCCR is an adjunct of the Virginia Committee for Civil Rights (VCCR) and explained that the RCCR and the VCCR, to his knowledge, were reputable groups that had no affiliation with the CP or any other subversive organizations. ~~S~~ U

On May 18, 1955, this informant advised that the RCCR was no longer in existence. ~~S~~ U

According to a circular published by the RCCR, this organization was formed in 1948 to oppose segregation and discrimination in Virginia in accordance with the President's Civil Rights Program.

The Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, report number 378, on April 25, 1951, cited the World Peace Appeal, also known as Stockholm Peace Petition, as follows:

"The Permanent Committee of the World Peace Congress met  in Stockholm, Sweden, between March 15 and 19, 1950. to launch the boldest and most far-reaching maneuver of the whole Communist peace movement--the world-wide circulation of 'peace' petitions

"The launching of the world-wide drive for signatures to a so-called World Peace Appeal  is the  most extensive piece of psychological warfare ever conducted by any organization on a world scale The World Peace Appeal was launched 3 months before the outbreak of Communist armed aggression against South Korea. Obviously the appeal was intended as a smoke screen for such aggression."

On May 1, 1950, RH T-2 advised that the "Hill Election" Campaign was on the agenda of a CP membership meeting held at 3605 Meadowbridge Road, Richmond, Virginia, on April 17, 1950. At this meeting, [redacted] CP in Richmond, stated that ways must be found to influence a real drive for OLIVER HILL in the next six weeks. She declared that the CP must influence all groups possible to work for the support of HILL among members of other races besides his own. It is noted that OLIVER HILL was a candidate for Councilman in the City of Richmond. at the time ~~U~~

On April 4, 1960, RH T-3, a representative of another Federal Government agency which conducts personnel and security-type investigations, informed that he had received the following information from a source whose identity he did not desire to reveal and whose reliability he did not furnish: ~~X~~ U

The source reported that she has a nine year old girl attending Carver School in Richmond, Virginia, and that considerable pressure had been brought to bear upon her directly and also indirectly through her daughter by teachers and leaders of her race in Richmond insisting that she join the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). The source reportedly refused to join the NAACP. ~~X~~ U

The source further stated that for some time OLIVER W. HILL had appeared at the Carver school each Monday morning at which time he had talked to the students. The source said the general tenor of HILL's talks to the students "is a hate program directed toward the white race and a fanatical adherence to the aims of the NAACP." The source also reported that there was a widespread rumor among the people of her race in Richmond to the effect that OLIVER W. HILL and other members of the NAACP were requiring individuals to sign over their homes and other property in their wills to the NAACP. It was of concern to the source that the school system of Richmond was being used to advocate such open hatred for the white race. ~~X~~ U

On December 30, 1960, T-3 identified his source as

She said that no one has ever tried to induce her to join the NAACP and she could not suggest anyone whom HILL or anyone else had ever prevailed upon to join the NAACP. She said that HILL may have addressed the Parent-Teachers Organization of the Carver School at one time or another, however, she was never at any meeting that HILL addressed. She said that she has no knowledge of HILL appearing at Carver School on Monday mornings or any other morning and speaking to the students and that she has never heard of HILL or anyone else requiring individuals to sign over their homes or any other property in their wills to the NAACP. ~~X~~ U

In January, 1943, RH T-4, who was aware of some of the activities of the CP, as well as the identities of some of its members, advised in January, 1943, that OLIVER HILL, N.A.A.C.P. Attorney, was a speaker at the organization meeting of the Richmond Civic Council held on January 1, 1943, at Richmond, Virginia. According to the informant, HILL did not follow the "usual harangue on the race question", but gave a fine talk on the life of THADDEUS STEVENS, and named him as the most potent force behind the emancipation of the Negroes.

RH T-4 added that this meeting was dominated by ministers. He said, in his opinion, the Richmond Civic Council was formed by the N.A.A.C.P. as an instrument behind which they could operate to further their own program of saving the Negro race.

On May 11, 1944, this informant stated that the activities of the Richmond Civic Council were negligible and that its post-war planning committee had not functioned for over a year.

On April 4, 1955, RH T-2 advised that the CP discussed OLIVER HILL as a candidate in the Virginia State election at a meeting of the Richmond branch of the CP on April 30, 1955. At this time the CP decided that HILL must be forced to come out on a pro-labor program if he expected to have a chance. ~~X~~ U

On July 28, 1955, RH T-2 informed that a discussion was held concerning the elections in Richmond, Virginia, at a CP meeting on July 21, 1955. On September 24, 1956, RH T-2 reported that a business meeting of the Richmond branch of the CP was held September 18, 1956. It was brought out in the public hearing that the Virginia State Legislators had received some leaflets from the CP with respect to segregation in the public schools. It was reported that the Committee had retained OLIVER W. HILL and THOMAS H. STONE as Associate Counsel. It is noted that FREDDIE WILLIAMS was a 14 year old Richmond boy who was tried in Richmond, Virginia, on December 19, 1945, on one count of attempted robbery and two counts of robbery and was sentenced to a term of 54 years in the penitentiary.

He noted that HILL is a member of the NAACP legal staff and was a member of the Richmond City Council a few years ago. ~~X~~ U

* He recalled that HILL has on numerous occasions been discussed at meetings of the Virginia State Communist Party. He remembered that the CP leaders in Virginia sought to aid in HILL's campaign for Richmond City Council and that HILL accepted their help as individuals but not as representatives of the CP. He pointed out that to his knowledge, HILL has never been a member of, or associated with, the CP or any organizations or groups controlled by the CP. As a matter of fact, he mentioned that both [redacted] of the CP in the State of Virginia in the 1940's, and [redacted] have attempted to influence HILL on occasion; however, he has, in effect, told them that he and his organization, the N.A.A.C.P., do not want to have anything to do with the CP. ~~X~~ U

The article continued that HILL urged those present to call upon the legislature to begin eliminating Virginia segregation laws.

The article stated that the crowd booed down an attempt from Dr. C. C. AT NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

An article appearing in Columns 4 and 5 of Page 11 in the "Louisiana Weekly", a newspaper published weekly at New Orleans on January 28, 1950, contained an article captioned "18 SOUTHERN LAWYERS FILE NEW BRIEF IN SWEATT CASE".

This article reads in part as follows:

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 8/26/83 BY SP16SK10M
233,513

"Eighteen Southern lawyers have signed a brief to be presented before the U. S. Supreme Court in support of a Negro law student suing for admission to the law school of the University of Texas, Aubrey Williams, President of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., of New Orleans, announced today.

"The brief, filed in behalf of the Educational Fund, attacks the principle of 'separate but equal' facilities in education as involved in the case of Herman Sweatt, who is challenging the right of the state of Texas to force him to attend a segregated Negro law school, Williams said. The case is scheduled to be heard January 30th."

The article stated that among those signing the brief was OLIVER W. HILL, Richmond, Virginia.

An article which appeared on January 16, 1950 in the "Times Picayune", a daily newspaper published at New Orleans, captioned "Lawyers Sign Brief to Support Negro", reads as follows:

"Eighteen Southern lawyers have signed a brief to be presented before the United States supreme court in support of a Negro law student suing for admission to the University of Texas law school, Aubrey Williams, president of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., of New Orleans, announced Sunday.

"The brief attacks the principle of 'separate but equal' educational facilities and is filed in behalf of the fund. The case concerns Herman Sweatt, who is challenging the right of the state of Texas bar him from the University of Texas. The case is scheduled Jan. 30."

A sketch of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. has been placed in the Appendix to this report.

NO 161-9/wfl

New Orleans Confidential Informant T-1, who is well acquainted with activities of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) and the SCEF advised December 6, 1948 that on November 20, 1948, the SCEF sponsored a Declaratory Conference on Civil Rights at Madison Hall, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia. The meeting was under the chairmanship of AUBREY WILLIAMS, president of the SCEF.

The following declaration was adopted by this conference:

A DECLARATION ON CIVIL RIGHTS

"It is useful at any time to re-examine day-to-day practices in the light of professed beliefs. Such an examination seems especially appropriate today, because (a) Many fellow citizens, especially in our Southern States, are unashamedly advocating ideas contrary to American democracy; (b) Truth and justice are not bounded or divided by parallels of latitude - this is one country and one people, governed under one constitution; (c) A rapidly changing world requires a new analysis of the meaning of equality and freedom adequate for new conditions; (d) Finally, the United States today is bidding for world leadership. Practice at home of what we advocate abroad is the only road to effective leadership.

"With these ideas in mind, we, the undersigned citizens of the Southern States and of the United States, have taken a fresh look at our American heritage of freedom and equality for all, and how it works out in actual practice. We present here our findings and conclusions in all sincerity, hopeful that our efforts may stimulate others to undertake a similar discipline.

(B)

"We still believe all men are created equal, and are endowed as men with certain rights which each must respect and guard to the other.

"We take these rights to include equality before the law, and freedom from any discrimination bolstered by law; a right to vote; freedom of expression; an unrestricted access to all institutions supported by taxes for the public welfare, schools and hospitals not excepted; equal pay for equal work, and equal opportunity to acquire abilities and to gain employment; freedom of movement and location, and the right to assemble in unsegregated groups.

"For many of our citizens enjoyment of these rights is abridged by laws and conventions contrary to justice, and to the aims and purposes of this republic. We recognize the habitual and cultivated prejudices upon which such discriminations are sustained; we recognize the need of protections in law, and in the enforcement of law, to these rights, in our day.

"Looking back at the road we have travelled, we are gratified at what progress has been made. However, past achievements should serve as an incentive to greater progress and not as an excuse for our failure to meet present obligations.

"This nation was founded with the declaration that all men are created equal and are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights.

NO 161-9/wfl

"We are proud that these words were given to the world by a Southerner.

"Closely associated with the idea of equality and the political democracy built upon it is another concept basic to American culture, the idea of the brotherhood of all mankind. It was given to us many centuries ago in the Hebrew-Christian tradition, -- 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.'

"We understand the historic conditions that gave rise to our present plight. However, those conditions long ago ceased to exist, although their effects endure.

"Discrimination inevitably means lower living standards for those who discriminate as well as for those who are victims of discrimination. Although the South is one of the richest regions in the United States, the average citizen in a Southern State has an income forty per cent lower than that of a citizen in a non-Southern state.

"Today we are bound by economic, political, and ethical demands to abolish segregation and discrimination against racial, religious, and national groups.

(F)

"To bring American ideals and deeds into closer harmony, we offer the following proposals:

"I. FOR VOLUNTARY INDIVIDUAL ACTION: To speak out against discrimination when it is confronted in a particular case; to guard against prejudice in thought, word, and deed; to cultivate the habit of thinking of all persons as individuals, rather than as members of a group.

NO 161-9/wf1

"II. FOR VOLUNTARY GROUP ACTION: (By educational, religious, fraternal, labor, business, professional, civic, and other groups.) To inform and educate their members as to present inequities and injustices, and to secure their consent and approval of changes in constitutions, by-laws and practices needed to establish these rights.

"III. FOR LEGISLATION: (a.) Repeal of existing laws in violation of these principles, notably all laws that force public distinctions based on color, religion, or national origin.

(b.) Passage of new legislation at federal, State, and local levels to serve as a shield to the civil rights of the citizens, including the rights outlined above."

* * *

NO T-1 further advised December 6, 1948 that the name of "OLIVER W. HILL, Attorney, Richmond" was included on a list of names purportedly to be the signers of the declaration adopted at the conference.

NO T-1 was re-contacted January 3, 1961, but advised she presently has no recollection or knowledge of the information previously furnished by her on December 6, 1948. She also advised that she does not know Mr. HILL and personally has no information in her possession concerning him. She had no information concerning the filing of the brief in the HERMAN SWEATT case.

Organizations and/or Publications

The following organizations and/or publications which have been utilized in this report and which have not been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450, are characterized in the attached appendix pages.

A P P E N D I X

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot," a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the SOUTHERN CONFERENCE FOR HUMAN WELFARE (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans area, advised on May 18, 1960, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, Communist Party (CP) members were members of and worked actively in the SCHW. However, since the formation of the SCEF, rank and file CP members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated that the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial question, and through the years, certain CP members in the New Orleans area have been assigned to work in the organization to further CP principles.

On May 18, 1960, the source advised that in the past he has considered JAMES DOMBROWSKI, the Executive Director of the SCEF, to be a Communist, if not an actual Communist Party member, because he followed communist principles.

The source also advised on May 18, 1960, that many people who are officials and members of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means communists.

The CP - USA was designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Synopsis:

Gov. ALMOND, Richmond, Va., was Assistant Commonwealth Attorney and later Hustings Court Judge in Roanoke, Va., during period appointee practiced law there. Gov. ALMOND has no recollection of appointee leaving there under any cloud and feels that people who have so stated are confusing appointee with another lawyer of his race. Gov. ALMOND says appointee has high ethics, and a man of good moral character and loyalty to the U. S.

- RUC -

DETAILS: AT RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

On January 6, 1961, Honorable J. LINDSAY ALMOND, Governor of Virginia, advised that during the early 1930's he was Assistant Commonwealth Attorney in Roanoke, Virginia, at the time that ROBERT S. SMITH was Commonwealth Attorney, and Governor ALMOND was subsequently elevated to the position of Judge of Hustings Court, Roanoke, Virginia. Governor ALMOND said that he came in contact with the appointee during that time in the course of his duties, both as Assistant Commonwealth Attorney and as Judge. He said that he recalls very little of Mr. HILL's activities at that time but did recall that Mr. HILL lacked the maturity which so many young lawyers lack coming directly out of law school. Governor ALMOND said that beginning in the early 1950's when he was Attorney General under the administration of Former Governor [redacted] of Virginia, he had considerable contact with the appointee in school desegregation suits. Governor ALMOND said that if the appointee had become involved in any unethical practices in Roanoke or anywhere else he certainly would have known it.

b6

RH 161-25

He said that he is positive, to the best of his recollection, that the appointee never became involved in any such practices and that he did not leave Roanoke, Virginia, under any cloud. Governor ALMOND said that there was an attorney of the appointee's same race practicing in Roanoke at that time whose last name was DOLPHIN and who did leave Roanoke under a cloud in the early 1930's. Governor ALMOND said that he believes that anyone in Roanoke who has stated that the appointee left there under a cloud is confusing him with DOLPHIN.

Governor ALMOND said that from his knowledge of the appointee, he considers him to be ethical, able, well-mannered and a loyal American citizen.

MISCELLANEOUS

On January 5, 1961, IC [redacted] reviewed the following G-2 files regarding OLIVER WHITE HILL, under file number 000.24, Second Army Area in the Intelligence Records Section, Assistant Chief of Staff, Intelligence, Department of the Army, Pentagon. In correspondence dated October 17, 1952, the name OLIVER WHITE HILL appeared concerning the Virginia State Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in its 17th Annual Convention held in South Boston, Virginia. One of the several convention spokesmen included OLIVER WHITE HILL who advocated, as individuals, not members of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, that the Negroes vote in a block for the Democratic presidential nominee. This file indicates that OLIVER A. HILL while not a "Communist Party" (Communist Party member) or a "Communist Party Suspect" reportedly frequents and associates with top officials of the Communist Party in Virginia. According to this file he received their support in running for the office of Richmond City Councilman in 1948.

In correspondence dated November 25, 1949, the name OLIVER WHITE HILL, among others, was indicated as having been elected to the Richmond National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Branch, Legal Staff.

The name of OLIVER WHITE HILL appeared in the summary as follows:

"Several Negro leaders including [redacted]

"President of the Virginia State Conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and OLIVER WHITE HILL, Richmond City Councilman (associate of top Communist Party officials in Virginia), condemned the Regional Educational Plan adopted by the Southern Governor's Conference. They maintained that was a way to deepen the program of segregation and stated they were prepared to fight it by every legal means."

"HILL said the program would be fought in three ways: (1) attack the appropriation of funds for such schools, (2) attempt to get a Supreme Court ruling on the issue in some of the cases already on the way to the high court and (3) probably start legal action immediately if a Negro is forced to go from Virginia to a regional college in another state to obtain the desired courses."

In Correspondence dated October 22, 1948, the name of OLIVER WHITE HILL appeared in the summary as follows:

"The Equalization of Educational Facilities Trial against Pulaski County school authorities for alleged discrimination against Negro high school age students began last week. The plaintiffs contend through three Richmond Negro attorneys, OLIVER WHITE HILL (associate to top officials of the Communist Party in Virginia), MARTIN A. MARTIN, and SPOTTSWOOD W. ROBINSON, III, that Pulaski County educational officials are not meeting their constitutional responsibilities by providing equal facilities for Negroes."

In correspondence dated April 14, 1950, the name of OLIVER WHITE HILL appeared as follows:

"The preliminary to the coming election for seats on the Richmond City Council have started here. Present members of the Council which include OLIVER WHITE HILL (Communist Party associate), prominent Negro attorney, and highly regarded by both races, have entered the race."

In correspondence dated February 4, 1949, the name of OLIVER WHITE HILL appeared in the summary as follows:

"The Baltimore Afro-American reported a split in political votes in Richmond by the endorsement of [redacted] Richmond Negro Attorney, as a "candidate for the Virginia House of Delegates by the Richmond Democratic League, and the indication by the Richmond Civic Council that it will back its [redacted] is reported to have announced his candidacy subject to a voters mass meeting on April 5. However, according to the Afro Board, the Council and the League are considered by 'most Richmonders' to be morally bound to support [redacted] candidacy because of assurances given last year when he withdrew from the Richmond City Council race in order to leave the field clear for OLIVER WHITE HILL (Negro)."

Martin A. Martin, Attorney, Richmond, Virginia, advised he first met Mr. Hill when they were both students at Howard University, Washington, D. C. Mr. Martin said that in 1945 he, Mr. Hill, and Mr. Spottswood Robinson III formed a legal firm at Richmond, Virginia. Mr. Robinson retired approximately five years ago from the active practice of law, and Mr. Martin and Mr. Hill continued as partners until November 30, 1960. At that time the partnership was dissolved due to the lack of adequate office space and libraries. Mr. Martin said that after Mr. Hill graduated from law school in Washington, D. C., he returned to Roanoke, Virginia, and practiced law there for a few years. He went back to Washington, D. C., where he worked as a waiter in the United States House of Representatives Restaurant and the Harvey's Restaurant. While there, he married Beresina Walker of Washington, D. C., a school teacher. Mr. Martin said that Mr. Hill returned to Richmond, Virginia, in 1938, and that he and Mr. Hill have been associated in many legal cases together. Mr. Martin said that, as a lawyer, he considered Mr. Hill to be of the highest type as far as his ability, ethics, moral character, loyalty, and honesty are concerned. He said he would highly recommend him for a position of trust and confidence with the Government.

J. Vaughan Gary, United States Representative from Virginia, interviewed at Richmond, Virginia, advised that Mr. Hill is an attorney in Richmond, Virginia, who has been involved in all the segregation cases in the State of Virginia for the past few years. He noted that Mr. Hill, because of his activities in this respect, is not in the good graces of the majority of the people in Virginia. He explained that Mr. Hill is an able and honest attorney. He stated that, to his knowledge, he is a loyal American citizen. However, he commented that it would be a grave error to appoint Mr. Hill to any Government position in Richmond or in the State of Virginia in view of the animosity against him in this area. He felt that Mr. Hill would function well in a position of trust in the North or East, but would not have the necessary cooperation in the South to do a creditable job.

Mr. Gary said that Mr. Hill was the first member of the Negro race to be elected to public office in Richmond, Virginia, and that he was supported by both major races in his election campaign because it was felt that he was a reliable, honest and able individual. He said that Mr. Hill did a good job as a member of the City Council and handled the duties of his office without prejudice.

Spottswood W. Robinson III, Dean, School of Law, Howard University, Washington, D. C., advised he has known Mr. Hill as a fellow member of the legal profession since the late 1930's. He said that they had been members of the same law firm in Richmond, Virginia, until September, 1955, when Mr. Robinson retired. He said he has had a very close professional and social acquaintance with Mr. Hill and his family and regards them very highly in all respects. He stated that Mr. Hill is an excellent lawyer and that he is a person of excellent morals, character, reputation, and associates. He said he is loyal to the United States. Mr. Robinson stated that Mr. Hill was honored by the Howard University in 1950 by receiving the alumni award. He stated he considers Mr. Hill to be extremely well qualified to handle the duties of an important position of trust and confidence in the Government.

Earl A. Fitzpatrick, Attorney, Roanoke, Virginia, advised that he recalled Mr. Hill when Mr. Hill practiced law at Roanoke, Virginia, during the middle 1930's. He stated that it is his recollection that Mr. Hill became involved in some type of dishonesty in connection with his relationship with a client. Mr. Fitzpatrick stated that there was some talk of disbarring Mr. Hill, but nothing of that nature was ever initiated and Mr. Hill departed from Roanoke, Virginia. Mr. Fitzpatrick said that he has tried for a long time to recall the details of the matter in which Mr. Hill was involved, but had not been able to recall the details or the identity of any individual who would recall what had transpired. He did not know who the client was.

C. E. Cuddy, Commonwealth Attorney, Roanoke, Virginia, advised that he recalled Mr. Hill as an attorney in Roanoke during the middle 1930's. Mr. Cuddy stated that between 1934 and 1937 he, Mr. Cuddy, was Assistant Commonwealth Attorney, Roanoke, Virginia, under Robert S. Smith, the Commonwealth Attorney. He stated that Mr. Hill practiced some criminal law in Hustings Court, Roanoke, Virginia, but he did not appear to possess any ability as an attorney. He advised, during approximately 1936, that someone, whose identity he does not know, came to the office of Mr. Smith and complained about the conduct of Mr. Hill. He stated that the complaint related to an attorney-client relationship, and he vaguely recalled it had something to do with funds taken by Mr. Hill from his client. Mr. Cuddy stated that it was discussed as to whether criminal action should be taken against Mr. Hill or whether the matter should be turned over to the Virginia Bar Association for disbarment proceedings but Mr. Hill left Roanoke shortly thereafter and no action or record was ever made of the incident. He advised that he could not recall the identity of anyone who might have knowledge of the incident since Mr. Robert S. Smith is deceased.

John Strickler, United States Attorney, Western District of Virginia, interviewed at Roanoke, Virginia, advised he recalled Mr. Hill as having practiced law in Roanoke, Virginia. He stated that when Mr. Hill departed from Roanoke, he did not have a very good reputation. He said that Mr. Hill's departure from Roanoke was vague in his mind, but he believed there was some question about Mr. Hill's having taken money that belonged to a client. Mr. Strickler stated that, to his knowledge, no action was taken against Mr. Hill in regard to the taking of the funds, and he had no idea as to who could furnish more specific information regarding the incident.

Mattie I. Echols, Secretary, Office of Willis A. Robertson, United States Senator from Virginia, interviewed at Washington, D. C., advised she was formerly secretary to Commonwealth Attorney Robert S. Smith at Roanoke, Virginia. She stated that Mr. Smith is now deceased. She advised that, while in Roanoke, she recalls there was an attorney practicing law by the name of Oliver W. Hill and that he became involved in some difficulty. She stated that she is not able to recall any of the details of this incident and that her knowledge of Mr. Hill is so slight that she is not able to comment concerning him.

Major Frank Webb, Superintendent of Police, Roanoke, Virginia, advised he recalled Mr. Hill when he practiced law in Roanoke. He stated that he is unable to recall any of the details concerning Mr. Hill's activities in Roanoke and does not know the reason for Mr. Hill's departure from there.

J. Lindsay Almond, Governor of Virginia, interviewed at Richmond, Virginia, advised he was Assistant Commonwealth Attorney in Roanoke at the time Mr. Robert S. Smith was Commonwealth Attorney. Governor Almond said that he later became Judge of Hustings Court, Roanoke. He said that he came in contact with Mr. Hill during the middle 1930's in the course of his duties, both as Assistant Commonwealth Attorney and as Judge. He said he recalls very little of Mr. Hill's activities at that time but did recall that he lacked the maturity, which so many young lawyers lack coming directly out of law school. Governor Almond said that in the early 1950's he was the Attorney General of Virginia and had considerable contact with Mr. Hill in school desegregation suits. Governor Almond said he is aware that allegations have been made which indicate that Mr. Hill was involved in some unethical practice while an attorney in Roanoke, Virginia. He said he is positive, to the best of his recollection, that Mr. Hill never became involved in any such practices and that he did not leave Roanoke, Virginia, "under any cloud." Governor Almond said there was a Negro attorney practicing law in Roanoke whose last name was Dolphin and who did leave Roanoke "under a cloud" in the early 1930's. Governor Almond said that it is possible that Mr. Hill has been confused with Mr. Dolphin. Governor Almond said that from his knowledge of Mr. Hill, he considers him to be ethical, able, well mannered, and loyal to the United States.

Twenty-seven other persons, consisting of associates, social acquaintances, present and former co-workers, and neighbors, were interviewed and they all recommended Mr. Hill. They stated that he is a loyal American of good character, reputation, and associates.

According to a circular, published by the Richmond Committee for Civil Rights, this organization was formed in 1949 to oppose segregation and discrimination in Virginia.

"The Permanent Committee of the World Peace Congress met  in Stockholm, Sweden, between March 15 and 19, 1950  to launch the boldest and most far-reaching maneuver of the whole Communist peace movement--the world-wide circulation of 'peace' petitions

The source reportedly refused to join the NAACP. ~~X~~ U

The source further stated that for some time Mr. Oliver W. Hill had appeared at the Carver School each Monday morning at which time he had talked to the students. The source said that the general tenor of Mr. Hill's talks to the students "is a hate program directed towards the white race and a fanatical adherence to the aims of the NAACP." ~~X~~ U

The source also reported that there was a wide-spread rumor among the people of the Negro race in Richmond to the effect that Mr. Oliver W. On December 30, 1960, the above Government agency identified its source as [redacted] Richmond, Virginia. She said that Mr. Hill may have addressed the Parent Teachers Association of the Carver School at one time or another. However, she never attended any meeting that Mr. Hill addressed. The January 28, 1950, issue of the "Louisiana Weekly," a newspaper published weekly at New Orleans, Louisiana, contained an article captioned, "18 Southern Lawyers File New Brief in Sweatt Case." This article reads in part as follows:

"18 Southern lawyers have signed a brief to be presented before the United States Supreme Court in support of a Negro law student suing for admittance to the law school of the University of Texas, Aubrey Williams, President of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, of New Orleans, announced today.

"The brief, filed in behalf of the Educational Fund, attacks the principle of 'separate but equal' facilities in education as involved in the case of Herman Sweatt, who is challenging the right of the State of Texas to force him to attend a segregated Negro law school, Williams said. The case is scheduled to be held January 30th."

The article stated that among those signing the brief was Mr. Oliver W. Hill, Richmond, Virginia.

Concerning the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, mentioned above, it is to be noted that the Southern Conference for Human Welfare was cited as a communist front by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. An amendment to the Charter of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare dated April 26, 1946, changed the name of that organization to the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals.

Oliver White Hill

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 18, 1960, that many people who are officials and members of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, while liberal in their views, are by no means communists.

The records of the United States Supreme Court contained a copy of a brief filed in the Supreme Court of the United States, October 10, 1949, case number 44, Herman M. Sweatt, petitioner, versus Theophiles S. Painter, et al, respondents, on writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court of the State of Texas.

The records of the United States Supreme Court indicate that on January 6, 1950, a motion of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Incorporated, was made to file a brief in the above case and a brief in behalf of the petitioner in which among the signatures of attorneys, the name of Mr. Oliver W. Hill, Virginia, appears. The above motion was denied February 6, 1950.
